What would painting H.D.'s portrait mean to you?

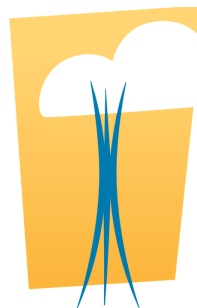

In 2017, we honored Bethlehem's most renowned literary citizen, the great early 20th century poet Hilda "H.D." Doolittle, by having the site of her childhood home recognized as a Literary Landmark. Her childhood home just happens to be the same piece of land where the Bethlehem Area Public Library now stands.

H.D. deserves a portrait, hung in the library, and we need your help. Help us raise funds to commission this one-of-a-kind work of art honoring this ground-breaking poet. The portrait will be hung proudly in the Main Library of the Bethlehem Area Public Library for all to enjoy.

We asked some of our young library patrons to try their hand at drawing a Hilda Doolittle portrait. They came out great!
