

Dear Friend,

Greetings from the Bethlehem Area Public Library! As we welcome fall, our community events are in full swing. Both children and adults recently finished up our summer reading and activity programs. Now youth can look forward to a full slate of story times, family fun nights, science, literacy, and art programs, and service on the Teen Advisory Board. Adults can enjoy book discussions, health and meditation classes, fascinating history lectures—and jazz and rock concerts after hours in the Library's newly renovated Bob Cohen Room!

With these programs and everything else the library has to offer, it's no wonder a hundred people come through our doors every hour.

But unlike our collections, our internet access for all, and the dedicated professional staff, our innovative community programs are not included in the library budget. The library can offer them because Friends of the Library provides the funding.

That is why we are asking you to renew your membership as a Friend at one of the levels listed on the reverse. Beyond supporting these vital programs, your membership has perks! Including:

- The opportunity to serve on a variety of Friends committees supporting the Library.
- An invitation to our annual meeting and reception, tentatively scheduled for December 3, 2019 from 6 to 6:45pm.
- A 10% discount on all Book Sale events at Main and a pass, available at the front desk, for free admission for up to a family of four at the Allentown Art Museum.
- Invitation to special events throughout the year.

With your continued membership, the coming year will be even brighter! Thank you for all you do for our wonderful Library.

Deni Thurman-Eyer
